FROM THE DESK OF PRESIDENT

Hello V-8ers,

With January behind us and the first day of spring less than two months away, it will be time to dust off your V-8 before you know it. Last month, the club's new board members and officers met for the first time, and our main priority was laying out the club's calendar of events for this year. From the looks of it, we have a pretty busy year ahead of us with some new events in addition to those that were popular last year and in years past. You can take a look at our preliminary calendar of events in the back of this issue of the Road Chatter or in the "Activities & Tours" section of the Northern Illinois Regional Group website, www.nirgv8.org.

Despite the cold weather, our January meeting was well attended. Ron Steck, our new Tour Chairman, provided a preview of the exciting events we're planning for the year ahead, and Ken Bounds gave an interesting Tech Talk on properly sealing your fuel filler tubes on '30's era cars. To top it off, Ron Blum surprised us with a trivia contest on which car makes were the earliest, with Tom O'Donnell and Joe Serritella tying to win the cash prize (they both won the 50/50 raffle, too – go figure?).

We also had a great turnout for our Installation Banquet at Casey's in Lombard. In addition to honoring last year's contributors and welcoming our new officers, we enjoyed watching the slide show Tom put together highlighting the club's activities over the past year. Our thanks again to Frank Madrigali for all his efforts organizing this event.

Looking to the month ahead, Joe Novak will be hosting our Ladies Night Out February 10 at the Pheasant Run Resort. At our meeting February 19, we will distribute club rosters. Ken will also have our new 2013 Calendars featuring photos of member's cars, which can be purchased for $6 each. And for our Tech Talk, John Scheve will talk about the restoration of his '37 Ford and share pictures with us.

One last note: I made brief reference to it above, but if you haven't checked out the Northern Illinois Regional Group website lately (www.nirgv8.org), you really should take a look. Ken has posted a lot of interesting and useful information on the site, including our club officers, meeting schedules, activities and tours (both at the club and national level), along with photos of members' cars, past Road Chatter articles, club history information, helpful links and more.

As always, please feel free to contact me with your questions or thoughts – srgilday@msn.com.

TECH CORNER

Repairing Early Fuel Tank Filler Leaks

By Ken Bounds

This month's Tech Corner is a bit of a repeat of a column we presented in the April 2009 Road Chatter. We have several new members who may be able to use this information, plus I have an update. At our January meeting I did a presentation on the subject and wanted to pass along the specifics to everyone.

The next three paragraphs are a portion of the original "It Worked for Me" article, with reference to work being done on Joe Kozmic's '37:

Ford's fuel tanks through early '37 used a threaded filler tube with a lead seal between the tank and the flange on the tube. Later tanks had a much easier-to-seal arrangement of a hose connecting the filler tube to a tube on the tank. Leaks on the early fuel tanks are apparently pretty common as I have the same problem on my '36 and I know of a few others who do as well. The lead seal is available from the typical parts suppliers for about $8. You need a special spanner wrench to remove the filler pipe. I bought one from Sears for $15. (Armstrong model 34-219).

On Joe's car we sprayed penetrating oil on the threads where the filler tube enters the fuel tank. Removing a fender support bracket provided easier access to the tube. The pin on the spanner wrench is inserted in the holes on the filler tube, which is then just screwed off. The entire assembly is then removed through the filler hole in the fender. I suspected the lead seal may have been missing, but one was there. Perhaps it was distorted and not sealing properly. We cleaned up all surfaces, inserted the new lead seal into the opening in the fuel tank, and screwed the filler pipe back in, tightening it securely with the spanner wrench.

Now for the leak test. We drove to the gas station and pumped about 6 gallons into the tank. The gas gauge now read about $\frac{3}{4}$ or better full. No leaks yet! We are hoping the problem is solved, but so far, so good.

Update: After publishing the above article, I also replaced the lead seal on my '36 Roadster using the same procedure. Everything seemed fine for a short time. Unfortunately, for both Joe's '37 and my '36, the leak returned. After trying a new seal and some other "fixes," I finally learned that the solution was simple. I just wasn't getting the connection tight enough with the short handle on the spanner wrench to compress the lead washer and make a good seal. If you install a lead washer with this same wrench, you need to get a length of pipe or other suitable extender so you can put a little more torque into the connection. With the fine threads of the filler pipe, I was surprised how many more turns I could make before the connection seemed really tight.

I completed my "final fix" to this problem a couple of years ago now - no leaks since. I also fully tightened Joe's filler and he has seen no leaks either. The spanner wrench shown above is still available from Sears online, but the price is now $23.70. The good news is you can buy it on Amazon for $15.31. The lead seals, part number 46-9051 are available for about $8 from Bob Drake, C&G, Macs, and others.

10 Years Ago This Month – February 2003

At the February 18 monthly meeting, President Ken Bounds read a letter from National Director Bruce Nelson recognizing Editor Diane Wrobel for receiving 4th Place and most improved in the newsletter competition. At the meeting Ken showed a slide show from Marty Duling about the Club's Christmas Tour to Springfield, along with a vintage film of an Oldsmobile commercial and the Duck & Cover public service film.

20 Years Ago This Month – February 1993

At the February 16 monthly meeting, President Ken Bounds announced that the Road Chatter had been awarded 4th Place in the newsletter competition. Ken requested that members consider writing articles and sending them to Editor Diane Wrobel. Membership Chairman Neil McManus reported that we had 80 paid-up members.

30 Years Ago This Month – February 1983

The February Road Chatter contained a letter from new President Chester Lawrence looking back on the events of 1982 and forward to many events in the new year. George & Betty Cech hosted 30+ V-8ers and friends at a Candelight Bowling event at Governor's Lanes in Cicero. After a barrel of laughs during the competition, trophies were awarded and everyone enjoyed a great meal.

40 Years Ago This Month – February 1973

The February newsletter welcomed 14 new members who had joined since October, including Don Braun and Tom Young; membership was now nearly 50. The newsletter included a list of 16 members planning to attend the inaugural Grand National Meet in Dearborn in August. At the February 12 monthly meeting, new member Bob Mengler showed an original Ford filmstrip showing proper tune-up procedures for '34 Fords.

V-8 Gals

I just don't know where I come up with this stuff. My method for creating this page is to sit down at my computer and start searching around the Internet. I start at pretty normal web sites, but then a click here and a key word search there and bam, I find something strange that I think people might find interesting. This time I found unusual uses for toothpaste. I never knew the little tube in the bathroom had some many uses. I hope you find this list as interesting as I did. Stay tuned to see what I come up with for March.

10 Unusual Uses For Toothpaste

1. Help With A Hair Color Mistake: You can use a small dab of white toothpaste to scrub away any stains along the hairline and cover up your oops moment with the hair color.
2. Soothe A Bee Sting: The alkaline paste helps to neutralize the bee's venom so spread a thin layer over a bee sting to ease the pain.
3. Display Artwork: Dab a little toothpaste on the back of papers to 'glue' them to the wall. Easy clean-up involves a wet sponge or paper towel when you are ready to take down the art.
4. Salvage Scratched Glass: A tiny dab of toothpaste polishes the glass to remove small scratches until you can find a more permanent solution. Caution: DO NOT use on your car windows!!!
5. Freshen Your Car: Place a small amount of toothpaste on a paper towel, then fold and leave it in the car with the windows cracked. The sodium bicarbonate freshens while you are away and leaves your car smelling great.
6. Refresh Silver: Use toothpaste to polish old silver and restore the shine
7. Clean Up Nails: The cleaning agents in toothpaste can help remove the yellow from your fingernails after they have been abused with nail polish.
8. Fog Proof Goggles: Rub some toothpaste on the inside of goggles and then rinse to have fog free goggles for swimming.
9. Get Grass Stains Out Of Denim: Using toothpaste as a prewash for grass stains on denim helps to break them down and remove them better than not doing it at all.
10. Spruce Up Leather: Like with the silver above, toothpaste can bring back some shine to white leather. Just polish and wipe clean with a damp cloth.
